

The ROYAL CHELSEA HOSPITAL 'SCARLET' GUIDED TOUR

Tuesday 28 April 2020 1.30 pm start

90 MINUTE PRIVATE TOUR LED BY A RESIDENT PENSIONER COST: £20

The Royal Hospital Chelsea, founded in 1682 by Charles II, has been providing a home for army veterans ever since. Our tour will reveal the history behind this unique national institution and will allow us to explore the famous Wren Chapel and Great Hall, gain an insight into 17th century life and hear first-hand what life is like for today's residents.

PROGRAMME

- 1.30 The tour will start from the Visitor Centre accessed through the Chelsea Gate on Royal Hospital Road. Please note that depending on numbers, we may be divided into two groups.
- 3.30 Approx. end time, including time for the Museum and Shop. Afterwards, the RCH Coffee Shop will be open for refreshments, and space has been requested for our group.

Getting to the Chelsea Royal Hospital:

CRH is an 8 minute walk from Sloane Square station via Holbein Place, Pimlico Road and Royal Hospital Road. I will leave from outside Sloane Square station at 1.10 to walk there with anyone who wishes guidance. You can also take the 170 bus from Victoria Station, alighting at the National Army Museum.

If you require further information, or are unable to come at the last minute please call Janice Brooke on 07910 342683
